

The Marg Csapo Student Scholarship

The Marg Csapo Student Scholarship was established to honour Marg Csapo, a long-standing Special Education Association* executive member, to recognize her accomplishments in special education as editor of the BC Journal of Special Education and as a faculty member with the University of British Columbia. The $2000 scholarship may be presented at the annual TIE-BC Crosscurrents Conference to a student or teacher taking training at a senior level in special/inclusive education at a university in British Columbia.

Criteria for Selection:

Applicants must:

- a. be currently enrolled in 4th year, 5th year, or graduate level courses in special/inclusive education at a university in British Columbia.
- b. submit a letter detailing:
  - i. personal experience which demonstrates interest in and commitment to working with children with special needs;
  - ii. future goals related to working in the field of special education; and
  - iii. relevance of coursework to achieving future goals.
- c. submit letter(s) of support verifying exceptional performance from one or more of the following:
  - i. a school-based sponsor teacher;
  - ii. a school district administrator of special/inclusive education; and/or
  - iii. a professor of special/inclusive education.
- d. submit all documents to the TIE-BC President by January 5th of the year in which the scholarship is to be awarded.

Nominations must be received by e-mail by the January 5th closure date. Late nominations will not be considered.

TIE-BC Executive Committee members are not eligible for this award during their term of office.

Contact: TIE-BC President

Email: tiebcpresident@gmail.com

* In 2016, the Special Education Association (SEA) changed its name to the Teachers of Inclusive Education British Columbia (TIE-BC) to reflect changing attitudes and language related to our profession.