

The Hazel Davy Award

The Hazel Davy Award was established to honour Hazel Davy's accomplishments in special education when she retired from the position of principal at Woodlands School. The award, which is presented at the annual TIE-BC Crosscurrents Conference, recognizes an individual's professional contribution to inclusive education in the province of British Columbia. The award consists of a plaque on which the winner's name is inscribed each year as well as an individualized plaque which is given to the recipient.

Criteria for Selection:

The nominee must be a BC resident:

- who is (or was) professionally employed in the field of special/inclusive education;
- who is (or was) a member of SEA or TIE-BC;
- whose professional contributions have affected the practices of other inclusive educators;
- whose professional contributions have resulted in improvement of services; and
- who is aware of the nomination and is willing to accept the award.

Nomination Procedure:

Nominations are invited through the Crosscurrents newsmagazine and through letters to District Teachers' Association Presidents, and district Special Services Administrators. Letters of nomination should be sent to the TIE-BC President and must be received by January 5th of the year in which the award will be presented.

The nomination must include:

- name, official position and address of the nominator;
- name, official position and address of the nominee;
- a description of the most outstanding professional contributions of the nominee; and
- the nominee's curriculum vitae.

Nominations must be received by the January 5th closure date. Late nominations will not be considered.

Please submit applications to the President of the Teachers of Inclusive Education British Columbia
